

Thaidene Nene National Park Reserve Information for Sailors and Boaters

Thaidene Nene National Park Reserve was created in August 2019. It is part of Thaidene Nënë Indigenous Protected Area (IPA). The park is managed by Parks Canada and Indigenous partners: Łutsël K'é Dene First Nation, Northwest Territories Métis Nation, Deninu Kųę First Nation, and Yellowknives Dene First Nation. Indigenous peoples continue resource harvesting, cultural, and spiritual practices in accordance with their constitutionally protected Aboriginal and treaty rights. These Indigenous partners guide the operations of the National Park Reserve through two management boards.

This is the first season of operations. There are currently no visitor facilities or services offered within the park. Parks Canada does have an emergency line that is monitored 24/7: <https://www.pc.gc.ca/en/pn-np/nt/thaidene-nene/visit/contact>

The Parks Canada web pages are expanding weekly and more content is planned. If you can't find information you want or have content suggestions, let us know.

www.pc.gc.ca/thaidene-nene

As Thaidene Nene National Park Reserve is managed under the Canada National Parks Act, there are a few new regulations and permitting processes that apply. Not only are the rules a bit different from territorial lands, and there are some allowed activities that are usually prohibited in national parks. An overview of the rules and regulations can be found in our Visitor Guidelines: <https://www.pc.gc.ca/en/pn-np/nt/thaidene-nene/visit/directive-guideline>

Registration:

All visitors to the national park reserve need to register, this can be done via e-mail.

More info: <https://www.pc.gc.ca/en/pn-np/nt/thaidene-nene/visit/inscription-registration>

Permit and licence information:

You'll need a Parks Canada fishing permit to fish in the national park reserve. The fishing permit fee waived for this year, but you still need a permit. Apply on-line:

https://www.pc.gc.ca/en/pn-np/nt/thaidene-nene/activ/peche-fishing/permis_permit_info

If you want to cache fuel in the national park reserve you will need to apply for a fuel cache permit (no fee): <https://www.pc.gc.ca/en/pn-np/nt/thaidene-nene/gestion-management/permits/carburant-fuel-cache>

Any photography in the park where the photographer is paid or the photographs will be sold triggers the need for a permit. Commercial use of drones is restricted and requires a permit. <https://www.pc.gc.ca/en/pn-np/nt/thaidene-nene/gestion-management/permits/Photo>

Companies that wish to do business in a national park require a business licence.

Contact us: pc.thaidene.nene.pc@canada.ca

An aircraft access permit (no fee) is required for all landings (private and commercial) within the national park reserve. This permit can be valid from April 1 to March 31 of the following year. You can find the application here: <https://www.pc.gc.ca/en/pn-np/nt/thaidene-nene/gestion-management/permits/aero-air-access>

Other information:

Bear safety information addresses best practices and firearms in the park:

<https://www.pc.gc.ca/en/pn-np/nt/thaidene-nene/security-safety/ours-bears>

Recreational drone flying is prohibited across all Parks Canada locations. Please do not fly your drone in the park.

If have a question don't hesitate to contact us at pc.thaidene.nene.pc@canada.ca

We are always looking for new images. If you have pictures from within the park that you want to share, please email us. Your images may be featured on our website, promotional material and publications.

Thaidene Nene National Park Reserve is part of the Thaidene Nënë Indigenous Protected Area as designated by the Łutsël K'é Dene First Nation, which includes the adjacent Thaidene Nënë Territorial Protected Area. For information on the Territorial Protected Area: <https://www.enr.gov.nt.ca/en/services/conservation-network-planning/thaidene-nene>